Martyna Gumula was born in September 14, 1988 in a small countryside. She graduated from Wyższa Szkoła Humanistyczna in Gdańsk, where she studied journalism and PR. She's been a devoted artistic photographer for five years and a lover of fashion photography for a year. Martyna tries to present the original way of doing the whole work. She's dedicated, persistent and ambitious in pursuit of her own dreams.

Martyna wasn't looking for it, photography found her itself, in moments of sadness or despair she took the camera. Later she became overwhelmed with fascination for women, trying to reveal their souls she dipped in art photography creating her own style of capturing moments and post-production, few years later she started to search the completely new way until she was fascinated by beautiful simplicity, so she started to learn and create her own fashion portfolio. She says, that she will never be perfect, because there's nothing worse than self-aggrandizement, you should learn during the whole life.

She was also published in such magazines as Invited Magazine, Confashion Magazine, LaMode Info, Live & Travel, Prestiż, Nous Magazine, Positive Magazine, Modo Magazine, Invision Magazine, Vogue It.

Martyna takes photographs from passion and with passion. When you ask her a question, whom she would like to be for the whole life, she answers that she can't imagine her life without what she does now – photography.

Studied Visual Arts and Photography in Spain, in 1998 he took up photography, with its first analog SLR camera, located in Barcelona has won several major awards for photography. Used to live on the Costa Brava in Spain, and watch the sunset near the sea, he thought of making editorial fashion and transmit the glimpses of sun. The publisher was a personal project, a team of nine professional fashion models, stylist, makeup artists and hairdressers. When I proposed my project, the team quickly got the idea from the publisher. For this we have three designers Fashion, ready-to-wear, lingerie and leather shoes, spanish. From fashion runways, where the most prestigious models parade clothing designer Esther Noriega, footwear Paco Herrero and elegant and sophisticated lingerie of suggestiveness designer, we have created the perfect symbiosis of elegance and combined sophistication with tissues Wild West.

Some prom dresses, fringe and leather mixed with steel fittings and metal get to see the sunset. We chose the location east of Madrid, between fields and cornfields in a scenario where all soft and warm sunset colors blend. The powerful light highlights the beauty of the models with the ideal makeup colors of the earth.

"There is only one way of seeing and expressing light"

Salamanca que enhechiza la voluntad de volver a ella
a todos los que la apacibilidad de su vivienda han gustado.
Advierte hija mía, que estas en Salamanca.
Que es llamada en todo el mundo madre de las ciencias.
Y que de ordinario cursan en ella y habitan diez o
doce mil estudiantes
Gente moza, antojadiza, arrojada, libre aficionada, gastadora, discreta, diabólica y de buen humo...
